NIMITZ ORDERS YANKS TO TAKE NO CHANCE

Emperor Hirohito today ordered all Jap armed forces to cease hostilities.

The Mikado issued his order in accordance with a directive by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Allied supreme commander.

The official announcement of the figurehead emperor's action came in a dispatch by the Jap Domei agency which was recorded by the FCC.

The Domei wireless transmission was recorded at 3:46 a. m. EWT, or 32 hours and 46 minutes after President Harry S. Truman announced in Washington that the Japs had accepted Allied surrender terms and would comply with directives of the American Allied supreme commander.

Make Time

The Jap dispatch explained that although the emperor had instructed his forces to cease fire "it may take some time, even several days, before the imperial order reaches first-line units in some remote islands or mountain areas."

The announcement that the Mikado finally had issued his order to halt hostilities was received by the Allied world more than 24 hours after Allied commanders in the Pacific had told their forces to cease offensive action.

The guns of war continued to bark when Japs persisted in hostile actions. U. S. Third Fleet guns downed at least 16 Jap aircraft which threatened their vessels and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz ordered the Americans to blast from the skies any Nipponese craft which appeared.

Reports from Southeast Asia, prior to the announcement of Hirohito's order, said that the Japs were still battling at points in that theater of war.

After announcing that the cease fire order had been issued by the

Governor Proud Of Way Citizens Took War's End

Two-Day Holiday Drawing To Close, Taprooms Can Re-Open Friday Morning

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—A two-day holiday marking the end of the war drew to a close today and Gov. Edward Martin issued a proclamation praising the patriotic spirit of the people for their restrained celebrations.

"I'm proud of the people of Pennsylvania," said the retired major-general who has participated in four victory celebrations during his army career.

Showed Respect

"While they celebrated Tuesday night the glorious victory over the last of our foes, they exercised excellent judgment and respect for person and property," the governor said.

It is to the credit of the people that the celebration was carried out with decorum and restraint," he added.

Meanwhile, the state liquor control board announced that state liquor stores and taprooms have been notified that they may reopen tomorrow morning at the usual time.

Japanese Military Attache Suicides

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—A Reuters dispatch reported today that the Japanese military attache to Switzerland, Lieut. Gen. Okamoto, had committed suicide in Zurich.

The suicide death of Okamoto was the second by a Japanese official since Nippon's surrender to the Allies.

Yesterday the Domei agency reported the death by his own hand of War Minister Korechika Anami.

Jap Government Says Time Too Short To Get Envoys Ready For Flight To Manila

MAY TAKE 12 DAYS TO CEASE FIGHTING

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, Aug. 16.—The Japanese government today ordered its armed forces to cease hostilities immediately but pleaded for more time to carry out General Douglas MacArthur's command to send a surrender emissary to his headquarters in Manila.

A message from the Japanese government to MacArthur, heard by the FCC, said that because of the "scarcity of time allowed us" it was impossible to arrange for the flight of the envoy and his party of advisers on Aug. 17.

Will Notify MacArthur

The government promised, however, that it would proceed with necessary preparations and would later notify MacArthur of the day of the flight.

The delay in carrying out MacArthur's orders developed after dispatches from Okinawa revealed that preparations had been completed for the arrival of the Japanese surrender party between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. tomorrow at Ie Shima, just off Okinawa.

May Take 12 Days

The message to MacArthur said "cease fire" orders had been given all Japanese armed forces at 4 p. m. Tokyo time today (3 a. m. EWT).

Manchuria Fight Still Continues

Japs Have Not Laid Down Arms—Russians Continue To Advance

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Aug. 16.—The Soviet high command said today that the war was still being fought in Manchuria and that it would continue until the last Jap fighter laid down his arms.

The latest Soviet communique issued in the Russian capital said the Japs were resisting despite Tokyo's surrender broadcast and that Russian armies made fresh gains of up to 19 miles.

Gen. Alexei I. Antonov, chief of staff of the red army, said that "capitulation of the Japanese armed forces may be considered effective only from the moment when Emperor Hirohito issued orders for his men to cease firing and lay down their arms and when the field commanders carry out the orders of the emperor."

Continue Offensive

"In view of these conditions the Soviet armed forces will continue their offensive operations against Japan," Gen. Antonov said.

The Soviet trans-Baikal army under the command of Marshal Rodio Y. Malinovsky, veteran of the German front, captured four major towns including Dolor Nor, 159 miles north of Peiping, former capital of China.

Malinovsky's troops also drove the Japs out of the key towns of Huat'e, Kangpao and Changpei and swept more than 19 miles through Jap lines to the east of the great King-ham mountain range.

Veterans Mark War's End With Celebration

Veterans Of Three Wars March In Parade Here Wednesday Evening

HOLD PROGRAM ON THE DIAMOND

Veterans of three wars gathered Wednesday evening under the auspices of the veterans organizations, and joined by representatives of other patriotic organizations, staged a street parade which was reminiscent of the days following the close of World War One. The parade terminated on The Diamond, where a brief program of patriotic music and addresses closed the program.

Last night's program ended the period of celebration with a note of seriousness, and was in direct contrast to the boisterousness with which residents greeted the news that the war had ended on the preceding evening.

Headed by the massed colors of the veterans organizations, and led by the band of the 16th Infantry, Pennsylvania State Guard, the marchers moved down Washington street from the Court House, finishing on The Diamond.

Plan Victory Loan Within Short Time

Secretary Vinson Says It Will Be Last Organized Drive For War Funds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Secretary of Treasury Fred M. Vinson went ahead today with plans for a "victory loan drive" for between ten and fourteen billion dollars to begin at the "earliest possible date."

Vinson said the money is needed to finance five pieces of unfinished business:

Transportation home for the victorious troops; mustering out pay; care of the disabled; maintenance of occupation forces in Germany and Japan; and cancellation of war contracts.

Last Organized Drive

The treasury secretary asserted that the victory loan should be made "the last of our organized drives."

He recommended, however, that the government continue sale of United States Savings Bonds "especially under the payroll savings plan."

A meeting of all state war finance directors is scheduled to take place in Washington Saturday, Aug. 18, after which details of the drive will be announced.

Victory Holiday Cleans Cupboards

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Capital city housewives whose cupboards were almost bare because the two-day victory holiday closed nearly all food stores, planned Friday today until food outlets resume operation tomorrow.

The sudden closing of many grocery stores to observe the victory over Japan left family cooks to get along with what provisions were on hand and the few restaurants which were open were overburdened.

Long lines of hungry customers stood outside restaurants for several hours after the normal supper time waiting to enter the establishments.

Harrisburg motorists were quick to take advantage of the lifting of gasoline rationing, and service stations did a booming business.

Elliott Roosevelt Is Civilian Again

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the late President, began civilian life today after receiving an honorable discharge from the army at Governor's Island.

The Second Service Command, announcing the discharge, said that Roosevelt will retain his brigadier general's rating "during the period of the present national emergency and for six months thereafter" unless it is otherwise terminated by the president.

Roosevelt, now 34, served nearly five years in the army, entering as a captain in September, 1940. He asked for a discharge last May and the army acted favorably on his request.

Truman Asks For Victory Prayers

President Designates Sunday, Aug. 19, As Day Of Prayer In Churches

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—President Truman today set aside Sunday as a day of prayer and thanksgiving for the victory over Japan and the ending of the war.

The chief executive said everyone probably would need to do a little praying after the two days' celebration following his announcement of the victory.

Freights Collide, Crew Men Scalded Near Lowellville

Rear End Collision Of B&O Freights Sends Three Of Crew To Hospital

REROUTING TRAINS OVER P&LE LINES

Three men were seriously injured, and around 25 cars from two freight trains were derailed at 7:45 o'clock this morning, in a rear end collision on the B. and O. railroad mainline, just a few hundred yards east of the Ohio state line, near Lowellville.

The injured all in the Jameson Memorial hospital are:

William J. Hetrick, aged 34 years of 22, North Lee avenue, engineer, scalded and otherwise injured.

Clair Gorley, aged 44 years, of R. D. 2, King avenue, fireman, scalded about the face, feet, and arms.

Robert Kyle, aged 42 years, of R. D. 5, head brakeman, also badly scalded.

William A. Smith of Willard, O., conductor, and L. M. Rice, of the Seventh Ward, flagman, escaped with a bad shaking up and bruises.

Wait For Passenger

From what can be learned from unofficial sources, Train No. 7308, a freight train operating between Painesville, O., and New Castle Junction, had pulled onto a siding about a half mile east of the Pennsylvania Power Company plant at Lowellville, O., to permit Train No. 62, a fast passenger train operating between Chicago and New York, to pass by.

After waiting the prescribed period of time, the freight made up of 30 cars of merchandise pulled back onto the main track, and was almost

ALCO Employees Not To Report For Duty Friday

Harry C. Slagle, works manager of the New Castle plant, Aluminum Company of America, made the following announcement to employees today:

"Office and plant employees of the Aluminum Company of America are requested not to report for work Friday morning, Aug. 17, unless notified to the contrary until the production schedule is clarified."

Old Timers' Picnic Draws Crowd To Park

Old Timers Day, which was observed here Wednesday, lived up to tradition, when a record crowd of descendants of pioneer families from the New Castle community gathered at Cascade Park to have their annual reunion and enjoy the pastimes of their youth.

Perhaps the occasion had something to do with it, as most everyone was in a happy mood yesterday following the close of the greatest war our nation has ever been involved in. Suffice it to say, the crowd in attendance was just as great as in past years and there were quite a few present from a great distance.

Folks began gathering early, and by 1:30 o'clock the hour of assembly, the dancing pavilion was well filled.

Huge Joint Fleet Lashed Japanese At War's Finish

Admiral Nimitz Reveals 133 U. S. British Warships Ranged Jap Waters

HEAVY FIRE POWER IN COMBINED FLEET

By GEORGE McWILLIAMS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, Aug. 16.—First Admiral Chester W. Nimitz today disclosed that the mighty U. S.-British armada which, lashed Japan in the closing days of the war was composed of 133 warships.

Nimitz revealed that during the last month eight U. S. battleships, 16 aircraft carriers, 19 cruisers and 62 destroyers composed the third fleet as it razed the Jap coast.

British Force

Operating with Admiral William F. Halsey's third fleet was a British carrier task force of one battleship, four carriers, six cruisers and 17 destroyers.

In addition to these two striking forces, Nimitz announced that the service fleets of both forces contained numerous unarmored tankers, ammunition ships, escort carriers, destroyers, destroyer escorts and miscellaneous supply ships.

The admiral disclosed also that submarines operated in close support of the fleet, carrying out vital search missions and rescue operations.

The massive naval force aggregated

Army Cancels 31,000 Airplanes

Estimate Savings In Contract Cancellations At Nine Billions

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The army air forces announced today they have cancelled contracts for an estimated 31,000 airplanes of all types and other material at an estimated saving of nine billion dollars.

Impact of the cancellation on the nation's aircraft industry and its one million odd employees was indicated by the fact this was the second major cutback in a few months. Earlier, the air forces announced cancellation of contracts for more than 43,000 airplanes.

However, Gen. H. H. Arnold, air forces chief, pointed out that the production reduction "by no means implies a dissolution of the partnership between the aircraft industry and the army air force."

Re-conversion

"We will be working in closer cooperation than ever with the aircraft industry in the re-conversion of the goal now is the re-conversion to civilian production," Arnold added.

There was good news in the cut-

Invites Chinese Communist Leader To Confer With Him In Chungking

CHUNGKING, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek moved today to thwart any possible civil strife in China by inviting the chief of Chinese Communist forces to confer with him in Chungking.

The head of the Chinese National government, Chiang Kai-Shek, said Mao Tse-Tung he wanted to discuss problems involving "our national welfare."

Chiang acted after Gen. Chu Teh defied an order from the generalissimo calling on the Communist 18th Group Army to "remain at its post" and refrain from taking independent measures against surrendering Japanese.

Stimson Says MacArthur Must Have Enough Troops To Quell Uprisings

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Speedy return to civilian life of an estimated seven million veterans of the armed forces hinged today on proof that the Japanese are not planning new treachery against Allied occupation forces.

"This was revealed by Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson. He warned in a demobilization statement that Gen. Douglas MacArthur must have a force powerful enough to insure peace and quell uprisings."

Take No Chances

"Until our own troops have been moved in and ascertained that no new treachery is being planned by any groups in the Japanese population, we must have the means to stamp out inexorably and completely any enemy uprisings," Stimson said.

To insure such a force, Stimson said the army's present 85-point discharge plan will remain in effect for the time being and will be lowered later to discharge an estimated five million soldiers within the next 12 months.

The navy also announced that between 1,500,000 and 2,500,000 of its

Closing War Days Marked By Action

Kaleidoscopic Changes In World Mark Closing Months Of War

By CAPTAIN JOHN H. CRAIG
(Written Especially For U. S. S.)

Japan's unconditional surrender brought a fitting climax to the tremendous chain of swift-moving events that marked the concluding days of mankind's second world war.

First of the events that marked destiny's surge toward the war's last-act climax was the death of President Franklin D. Roosevelt on April 12, four months and four days ago today. By an ironic twist of fate he was removed from the scene before any of the great decisive events that brought the war to a triumphant conclusion.

About ten days after President Roosevelt's death, the German-Italian

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Congress today faced a battle for immediate ending of the draft when the house and senate reconvene Sept. 5.

A movement already is under way to substitute a volunteer army of occupation for a draft army, despite the administration action in slashing the draft to 50,000 a month for men under 26.

"I think there will be tremendous pressure in congress right after we meet to end the draft," said Rep. May (D) Ky., chairman of the house military affairs committee. "The Draft was discontinued immediately after the last war."

Proposes Suspension

May proposed that an immediate suspension of the draft be ordered for a period of three months during which congress can consider orderly and of hostilities and it can be determined how much want to enlist in the army.

"We passed a law in June authorizing three years' enlistment and we will want to know the reason," said May. "It may be that there are

Yank Fliers Ruin 464 Japanese Planes In Last Three Days Of War

By GEORGE McWILLIAMS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, Aug. 16.—At least 464 Japanese planes were wrecked as United States fighters hunted them during the final three days of the war.

The newest, sleekest of Axis-American carrier plane varieties over the Japanese imperial air force was contained in a communique issued today by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, which noted 424 of the planes were destroyed as damaged in one single day's action Monday.

Yesterday 19 enemy aircraft, including five kamikaze suicide planes attempting to damage fleet units, were knocked out of the air after President Truman formally announced the Jap surrender and Admiral Nimitz issued an order to cease hostilities.

The third fleet meantime stood ready to assist General Douglas

These are the days when the newspaper is a box of bees. I have found and life goes along with a roar and a roar like a well-timed merrymaking. There's news from the west and there's news from the east, from princes and paupers and dopes and more flashes in red and blue in the world, some red and some raising up hopes. The news is like a bird on the wing, as the news happens early and late, and life on a paper is assumed with speed. The weather is warm eighty-eight.

B. P. W. AUGUST PICNIC AT BOYD'S

Members of the Business & Professional Women's Club were entertained for their August picnic at Boyd's Cafeteria, Chippin road, on Wednesday evening. At 6 o'clock a corn and pie supper picnic dinner was served at colorfully appointed tables set in the large living room of the cottage. Places were set for nearly 50.

Invocation was given by Miss Mary Scherger, president. Mrs. Earl Vason, Mrs. Gladys Baker, Mrs. Martha Smith, Miss Edna Duff, Miss Anna Fletcher, and Miss Beatrice Bane were the committee in charge of arrangements with the hostess of the evening, Mrs. Hazel Boyd. Miss Charlotte Emery was chairman of transportation.

An informal social time was enjoyed during the evening with group singing as a diversion.

Guests included Mr. H. W. Lockley of New Wilmington, Miss Mildred Lusk and two members of the Beaver Falls B. P. W. club.

Announcement was made that Miss Mary Scherger, president of the New Castle club and district B. P. W. chairman, will attend state and district meetings.

It was decided to hold a V-J Day picnic and Mrs. Boyd extended an invitation to the club for this event and Mrs. O. J. Muse was named chairman.

Still Fighting In Philippines
MANILA, Aug. 16. (INS)—Fighting continued in the mountains of northern Luzon and Mindanao right through the final day of the war as American Doughboys were facing an enemy which had no knowledge that their emperor had surrendered.

Yanks were forced to beat off a counter-attack and bombard charges hours after the order to halt the offensive had been received on the Philippines.

One soldier—a veteran of the 32nd Infantry Division—was killed two hours after President Truman announced acceptance of the surrender terms when the Japs staged a bold charge against the company command post in Luzon's Caraballa mountains.

Triumphal Entry Into Jap Harbor

Report Plan To Have Allied Fleet Make Entry Into Tokyo Harbor

LONDON, Aug. 16. (INS)—American, British and Dominion ships will join in making a triumphal entry into Tokyo Harbor, Reuters reported today from Sydney.

Another dispatch by a correspondent of the same agency in Burma said that an official cease fire order had gone out to Allied commanders in Burma but that as yet no Japanese military officials had come through the lines to accept terms of surrender.

THEY'RE YELLING "UNCLE"
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (INS)—Headquarters of the Japanese Kwantung army appealed over the Hainan radio to the Russian army Far Eastern headquarters today to cease attacks.

The Japanese army plea, broadcast in English and recorded by the PCC, declared that Japanese first line forces have ceased all military movements at their present positions.

The Japanese headquarters specifically asked the Russians to end their attacks on Manchukuo.

Will Return USES To State Control
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (INS)—President Truman today issued a recommendation by government that the 48 states that the U. S. Employment Service, now under federal control, should be returned to state jurisdiction as soon as possible.

The president conferred with a committee of seven governors headed by Gov. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania, representing the 38 governors. They discussed the return to the federal government to the state of the employment service as well as problems on reconstruction.

The group passed two suggestions of the committee and the states to the chief executive is looking reconstruction, production and cooperation that was given by the states during the war period.

HUNTING FOR AUTO
Walter Blazewski, 115 Terrace avenue, parked Dodge carrying a Pennsylvania license VJ669 last night near the New Castle hospital. When he went to get his car he found it missing. It was a dark green colored car.

Congress To Take Immediate Action For Public Works

Three Billion Dollar Construction Program Seen When Congress Meets Sept. 5

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
U. S. Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Swift congressional appropriations to set in motion a three billion dollar postwar public construction program to provide jobs was forecast Tuesday with Congress scheduled to meet Sept. 5.

Authorizing legislation already has been passed for a billion and a half highway program, more than a billion for rivers and harbors and flood control and nearly a half billion for reclamation works.

Should wide-spread unemployment develop, it is predicted that Congress also would authorize a huge public buildings program as well as other public works which have been held up during the war.

Reconversion Measures
Congress is being recalled to enact reconversion legislation. Some important measures already are on the law books.

These include: Contract settlements law so that a war contractor can quickly settle his accounts and get busy on civilian production, a surplus property disposal law, provisions under which manufacturers from plants in excess capacity can receive protection.

Congress also passed a tax law making income tax credits for five billion dollars of post-war credits for corporations, to aid them in reconversion.

With committees scheduled to meet in August, Congress will also consider a program laid down by Democratic Senate Leader Barkley, Ky.

This includes the proposed $25 a week unemployment benefit, so-called full employment legislation, continuation of some emergency agencies, reorganization of the government and revision of the surplus property act.

Legislation to reduce taxes is expected. Efforts may be made to cut some taxes effective for the last quarter, but a general reduction as of January 1 is virtually assured by congressional leaders.

Long, bitter clashes are expected on many legislative proposals when Congress swings into action. Democratic leader Barkley predicted that Congress will remain continuously in session for a year.

United Engineering Reports $1,115,916 Half-Year Income

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 16.—United Engineering and Foundry company reports for the six months period ending June 30, 1945, a net income of $1,115,916, equal after preferred dividends, to $133 per share on 820,746 shares of common stock outstanding.

The net income, reported in a consolidated statement, includes the net income for the period of the recently acquired wholly owned subsidiary, Adamson United company of Akron, O., and is after all charges and federal taxes, subject to year-end adjustments.

For the six months ended June 30, 1944, net income was $1,538,147, after all tax charges and a $200,000 reserve for war contingencies were deducted. This sum was equal to $162 per common share.

Some expected profits from contract terminations and sales subject to price adjustments are not included in this interim report for the 1945 period for the reason that actual determination of income could not be made in time for inclusion.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

Tired kidneys cause aches and pains, frequent urination, passing of blood, pus, frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Sink 12 Jap Freighters, Interceptor Planes And Sea-planes As War Closes

By PAT ROBINSON
U. S. Staff Correspondent

OKINAWA, Aug. 16.—Thunderbolts, Lightnings and Mustangs from Okinawa bases probably scored their final victories over Japanese fighters Tuesday as they sank 12 freighters in waters of the Negoya-Osaka area.

Capt. Ray Meyer of Rahway, N. J., flying his 102nd mission, got two of 17 Jap interceptor planes as he tried to save a pal who was shot down by anti-aircraft fire.

One each fell to Capt. Billy Moore, Lenore, Calif.; Lieuts. Dwight Hollinger, Findlay, O.; George Stevens, 3500 Powhatan Ave., Baltimore; Lieut. John Hemminger, Tacoma; Capt. Doug Curry, Sacramento, Calif.; Capt. Fred Wilson, Arlington, Va.; Lieut. Frank Haryska, Reading, Pa.; Victor Schmidt, San Francisco.

Jacob Hunt of Pottstown, Pa., and Bob Lane of Trenton, N. J., shared one Jap fighter and each got a sea-plane moored at Biwa Lake, Japan's largest inland body of water.

Dave Edmonds of Salt Lake City, Utah, also got a sea-plane.

No More Stamps, That's For Sure

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The OPA said Wednesday that the end of gasoline rationing is official and no gas station operator has the right to collect coupons from motorists hereafter.

An OPA spokesman said that the orders ending gas rationing have been filed in the federal register, official government publication.

"We are depending upon news accounts to transmit this fact to the public," the spokesman said.

There were some reports that filling station operators were still demanding gas ration coupons because they had not been notified formally by the OPA.

'Wishful Thinking' Says Mrs. Wainwright

Earlier Reports Of General Wainwright's Release Were Erroneous

SKANEATELES, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(INS)—Mrs. Jonathan Wainwright, wife of Lieut. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright who was taken prisoner on Corregidor by the Japanese, told newspapermen Wednesday that her husband's "unofficial" reports of his liberation were erroneous.

"It's merely wishful thinking," she said tearfully. "I've heard nothing."

"No, I haven't heard," she said. "I haven't heard at all. This is the first time I've heard anything about him."

Earlier, Mrs. Wainwright told New York newspapermen she learned unofficially this morning that her husband had been liberated and that a telephone call was being arranged for later today.

WAMPUM

sociate himself with those claiming the atomic bomb should not have been used.He predicted:
"If the Germans or Japan had discovered this weapon, they would have used it to our complete destruction with utmost alacrity."The former prime minister who took Britain through her darkest days discovered that Generalissimo
Stalin had promised to bring Russia into the war against Japan three months after the end of the defeat of Germany."This was a perfect example of the fidelity and punctuality with which Stalin always kept his en-

ALTHOUGH Japan is reported ready to surrender to forestall invasion of her home islands, she didn't make the decision in time to stop Lt. Vernon T. Coumbre (top), Lombard,
Ill., and Lt. Ralph Jacobs (bottom),
Chicago, from making their own private involuntary "invasion".
When Coumbre's plane was shot down on a mission, he spent the night in Japan. Jacobs attempted to rescue him and also lost his plane.

'Gorgeous Gams' Is Promise Of Makers Of Nylon

Legs Will Be Covered By Cobwebby Hose, But Supply Won't Equal Demand

By JEANETTE SMITH
Times Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—American women's legs will be more beautiful than ever before.

They'll be sheathed in stockings unsurpassed for smoothness and beauty—undreamed of, in fact, even in the pre-war years.

And what is equally important from a woman's point of view, the post-war stockings will be durable, impervious to washings and snags, and close-fitting, unlike the wartime ravens which have been bagging at ankles and knees.

These revelations came today from the hosiery industry which has been preparing for months for V-J day, awaiting only government release of materials like nylon to make the dream a reality.

One word of caution, however, sounded by Roy E. Tilles, a member of the postwar planning committee of the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers.

While stressing the desired "cobwebby" aspect of the forthcoming stockings, Tilles, who is president of the Gotham Hosiery Company, said that the new nylons probably won't be available until Christmas eve at the earliest—possibly not before that grand and glorious New Year's eve celebration.

What's more, no one in the hosiery industry knows how many nylons will be on sale to each individual girl at hosiery stores, or for that matter, exactly what the stockings are going to cost.

"We don't know what regulations the government might see fit to impose," Tilles explained. "There's an OPA ceiling price of $1.55 to $1.85 a pair on nylons. Whether or not this will continue, is anybody's guess. As for the supply—well, we in the hosiery industry estimate that it will be at least two years before it equals the demand."

No Increase In Speed On Highway For Time Being

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—A spokesman for Gov. Edward Martin said today that no action had been taken for the lifting of the wartime 35-mile-per-hour speed limit on Pennsylvania highways.

"There's nothing been done on it yet," the spokesman said. "It will take a little time."

The chief executive, however, was expected to issue a proclamation before permitting the return of the 50-mile-per-hour limit in Pennsylvania. Former Gov. Arthur H. James ordered the reduced speed limit several years ago to conserve tires and gasoline.

Officials of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission were unavailable for comment but it was also expected that the pre-war 70-mile-per-hour limit would be restored on the 165-mile "Super-Highway" between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

This Record Rates Very Few Cheers

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Pennsylvania led the 47 other states in the number of strikes and lockouts in 1944, Census Bureau regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, today announced.

The commonwealth piled up a total of 821 strikes and lockouts, involving 328,226 workers, Census said.

The iron and steel and mining industries were listed as having more than 50 per cent of the disruptions occurring. In 27 different industry groups, 10,575 strikes in those two industries, 213,719 workers were involved.

The state lost 1,579,761 man-hours as a result of the work stoppages, better than 15 per cent of the more than eight million man-hours lost throughout the nation, Census added.

Local Sailor Among Missing On Indianapolis

Coxswain Kenneth George Patterson On Ill-Fated Cruiser Recently Listed As Sunk

Coxswain Kenneth George Patterson, son of Mrs. Sarah E. Patterson, of 232 East North Street, was among the members of the crew of the ill-fated U. S. Cruiser, Indianapolis, which has just been listed by the Navy department as having been sunk in the waters of the Pacific enroute from Guam to the Philippines. He is listed as missing in action, a message received by Mrs. Patterson states.

Coxswain Patterson entered the service in February, 1944 and was assigned to the Indianapolis, on completion of his boot training and had been in the Pacific theater since that time.

No Revenge For Japs Says Truman

Japan Will Be Given No Chance To Carry Out Revenge Plans, President Says

By ROBERT C. NIXON
U.S. Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—President Truman warned the Japanese people today that they will be given no opportunity to seek revenge against the allied nations.

The chief executive told a news conference that Japan will be occupied by our military forces under a military government for as long as it takes the Japanese people to learn the ways of peace.

He asserted flatly that it is up to Japan, as well as Germany, to demonstrate to the allies that they can live again in peace without thoughts of making war again for revenge or conquest.

No Occupation Zones

Mr. Truman reaffirmed that the occupation of Japan will be carried out under General MacArthur and that there will not be zones of occupation such as exist in the occupation of Germany, although troops from the nations that fought against Japan will be represented.

Japan will be occupied, he said, so long as it is necessary, and the period of years of military occupation will be entirely dependent upon the Japanese demonstrating that they can be trusted as a peaceable people.

The same thing, the president said, applies to the German people and allied military occupation of Germany.

A reporter called Mr. Truman's attention to radio broadcasts from Japan on the theme of revenge.

The president said that nearly every defeated people think of revenge, but that he does not think they will have the chance to implement it.

Still Need Strong Force

With the war over, the president made it clear that the need for a strong American military action is not ended.

While he wants to see American fighting men get back home as quickly as possible, he must, at the same time, maintain a strong arm and navy, he emphasized.

The president said that at the proper time he will make public his ideas on future universal military training which he will present to congress.

Meanwhile, the continuance of the draft will be a matter with which congress must deal and the drafting of youths under 26 will enable them to replace veterans who have won the right to return home.

As to V-J day, Mr. Truman said that will come when the Japanese sign the surrender and it is implemented. He told the news conference that two million Japanese are still bearing arms and must be disarmed.

V-J No Holiday

There will be no holiday on V-J day, the president said.

The president's conference covered a wide range of subjects. It was the first opportunity reporters had to question him since his return from the "big four" meeting.

Among other disclosures made by Mr. Truman were:

1. The vast projects set up secretly by the government to produce the atomic bomb will be kept going and will be used for the benefit of mankind, rather than for its destruction. Congress must decide their ultimate fate.

2. Gen. MacArthur, and not the president, will announce when and where the Japanese officially surrender.

3. The president intends to back the full employment bill to the fullest possible extent.

4. The president is not yet ready to announce the name of the new supreme court justice or other pending appointments, but now that the war is ended he expects to get around to politics again very shortly.

5. On the subject of taxes, the president is keeping his own counsel now and has no views to express at the moment.

6. He has no plans for leaving Washington any time soon.

Jewish State

7. At Potsdam, the president discussed a future Jewish state in Palestine with Churchill and Acheson and he favors continued immigration of Jews into Palestine. But the setting up of a Jewish state is a matter of decision in which the British and Arabs must be considered, and the president has no intention of sending an American army to Palestine to enforce such a matter.

8. The future of Korea was discussed at Berlin and the president expects that it will again become a free country.

9. The future of Hongkong was not discussed.

10. A future meeting of the Big three was left open. The president said that time will tell when or whether there will be another one. There was no decision at Berlin on a permanent home for the United Nations.

ANGRY RACING FANS CROWD AROUND the judges' stand at Suffolk Downs, Boston, Mass., to protest the disqualification of Johnnie Jr., winner of the seventh race. Sodality Sponsors Special Services

St. Joseph's Groups Conducts Thanksgiving Services On Wednesday Evening

Prayer hour in thanksgiving for peace, in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was conducted in St. Joseph's church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, under the sponsorship of the St. Joseph's Sodality.

The rosary was recited, followed by the hymn, "To Christ the Prince of Peace; the litany of the Blessed Virgin."

Rev. Fr. John M. Unger recited the prayer for our fallen heroes dead. The prayer for the people of bombed countries was also given.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name", brought service to a close.

'Very Queer Bird Is The Pelican'

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—(INS)—A 41-minute air race alert in the San Francisco bay area on June 27, 1943, was called by a "whole flock of pelicans."

As part of the now-tell-told stories of the war, the pelican incident proved the efficiency of radar in detecting the approach of possible enemy airplanes.

It can be disclosed with the lifting of military censorship that radar can detect a single pelican at sea. Two years ago in June the flock of pelicans was picked up by radar and set in motion the Pacific coast's elaborate air defense system.

Because of security—surrounding the employment of radar at that stage of war, the army could merely announce at the time that the targets "disappeared."

Japanese Ask Red Army Quit Firing

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The PRC reported today that monitors in New Delhi have heard the Japanese radio at Peking (Changchun) say that the Japanese Kwantung Army headquarters had appealed to the Russians to end their attacks in Manchuria.

Curtiss-Wright Closed Two Days

NEW YORK Aug. 16.—(INS)—G. W. Vaughan, president of Curtiss-Wright Corp., a major producer of war planes, engines and propellers, announced Wednesday that all Curtiss-Wright plants and subsidiaries would be closed for 48 hours.

Vaughan said the closure order, to await instructions on government contracts, would affect about 150,000 employees in plants in Buffalo, N. Y., Columbus, O., Paterson, Wood-Ridge, Caldwell and Clifton, N. J., Cincinnati, O., Beaver, Pa., and Indianapolis.

At the same time, as president of the Aircraft War Production Council, Vaughan announced dissolution of that agency.

No Change—No Food Restaurants Close

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Nearly all downtown restaurants were closed today in Pittsburgh, but not because of the two-day holiday. They couldn't make change.

People living downtown were hungry because the banks were closed, but elsewhere in the city people went on a forced diet because of empty refrigerators.

Housewives were caught short by the sudden declaration of the double holiday.

ONE DEAD, TWO HURT IN 'V-J' CELEBRATION

WELCH, W. Va., Aug. 16.—Victory celebrations in McDowell county ended in death for one youth, while two persons are patients in Welch hospital, suffering from bullet wounds. Thomas Smith, 16, of Gilbert, was killed instantly when he lost control of his motorcycle and crashed into a brick wall.

The shooting victims were Elmer Hawkins of War, who was accidentally struck by a bullet, fired by an unidentified celebrant on the streets of War, and Rosie Burlock, Keystone, Chief of Police Leonard E. E. of Keystone said Elsie Vanastan is being held in the city jail without charge pending outcome of the Burlock woman's injuries.

IN THE OPEN

At the edge of the pond I set up a light fly-rod, tied on a home-made leader, and impaled a small redworm on a size 4 snick hook. The day was just right for some still-water angling, with not too much sun, and a whisper of breeze freighted with heavy mint fragrance from growth fresh crushed by my boots.

Across the pond a kingfisher suddenly left his observation post and snatched into the water. He missed whatever he had been aiming at and flew out of the area, plainly disgusted with his luck. In the trees all about the cicadas kept up a steady racket, sounding like so many tiny workers bucking up against riveting guns in a miniature war plant.

I selected a spot where the growth was not too thick to hamper short casting and dropped the redworm into the water about twenty feet offshore. The leader and part of the line had just submerged when a quick jerk suddenly pulled down the rod tip and snaked out all slack line in a quick run towards deeper water.

Hooks Bluegill

Instinctively I set the hook and tightened all tackle for a grand scrap with the sportiest of all panfish—the bluegill sunfish. This first one was a big fellow, as bluegills go, and he tussled around at a great rate. He had been hooked too deeply to remain unhurt, so I killed him and cleaned him up for consumption to the creel.

The upper end of this pond disappears into a tangled marsh of cat tails, traversed by the small feeder stream. Dragon flies of many varieties and colors buzzed around busily, engaged in their various affairs. A sturdy water plantain flowered in the shallows at my feet. From a nearby thicket a "rain crow" sporadically called for the downpour which came four or five hours later.

The quiet beauty of the place and these may activities going on all around so bemused me that for the next few casts I very carefully suffered the embarrassment of having the bait nearly stolen from the hook. After three or four smart fish had outwitted me, I settled down to some serious angling and in an hour or so ran up a sizable score. When the bluegills were lip-hooked or otherwise easily disengaged, I carefully returned them to the pond. Those more deeply hooked I killed and creeled. When the sun and my appetite decided it was time to quit the score stood at an even 25 fish caught, of which eight lay wrapped in saw grass in the creel. Considering his size and weight the bluegill is perhaps the gamiest of all fish to be found in our inland waters. He would surely be a tackle smasher had he the girth and strength of the smallmouth bass. Most of the fish caught during this foray struck the bait quite readily and were usually hooked high. The fish killed were largely the victims of their own sluggishness in striking lazily and swallowing the hook before I felt them at the lure.

Good Fish

There are supposed to be some bass in this pond, but I was not using either the proper tackle or bait and did not hook into any of these larger fish. The bluegills provided plenty of action and one of the most enjoyable afternoons of the summer season. They are not to be confused with the pumpkinseed, common to every fresh water brook. The bluegill is a real individual, worthy of the respect of every angler.

Later that evening we drove around one of the impounding reservoirs of a city water supply system. In a dead tree, silhouetted against the evening sky, a pair of kingbirds had established vantage points from which to sally forth and snap up an occasional passing insect. It was quite a show to watch these flycatchers at work. They each made at least twenty forays during the few minutes we were watching, and in every instance they apparently made a sure catch.

We added a new flower to the season's list one day recently. While driving south through Butler County we noted several stations of a tall spike-like purplish pink bloom. It fairly blazed in thick stands by the roadside. We always have the flower book along on these journeys, and a quick check identified the plant as the Gay Feather, a pleasing and quite fitting name for this beautiful midsummer blossom. This would make an ideal tall border plant for the backyard florist.

Pre-School Clinic In County Schools

Union, Bessemer, Wampum, New Wilmington Plan Clinic For Beginning Youngsters

Pre-school clinics for the benefit of children who will enter school for the first time this fall are being held at Bessemer elementary school, Union township high school, New Wilmington grade school and in Wampum, as well as at several schools in the city.

Under the joint supervision of Miss Hannah A. Parks, school psychologist for Lawrence county, and Mrs. Sylvia Sturdevant, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis association, the clinics will be staffed by elementary school teachers, a nutritionist, a dental examiner and by members of PTA or other local groups.

Lasting from 9 o'clock until 12, the clinics will offer such services as medical and dental examinations, tuberculosis tests, reading readiness tests, group mental tests, visual screening tests, hearing tests and talks by the nutritionist and by Mrs. Sturdevant.

Bessemer clinic will be on August 20, Union township's clinic will be on August 21 for those whose names begin with the letters A through M, and August 22 for all others. The New Wilmington clinic is scheduled for August 24 and the Wampum clinic will also be sometime in August.

HEADQUARTERS, PANAMA

CANAL DEPARTMENT—(INS)—Cpl. Raymond N. Lipcomb, of Muncie, Ind., on duty at an isolated island outpost of the Panama Coast Artillery Command, sent his girl as a Christmas present a pair of silk stockings available only in South America.

Today the Hoosier soldier received a thank you note. The appreciative young woman liked the box so much she wore them at her wedding to another man.

Youngster Faces Charge Of Murder

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Aug. 16.—A charge of murder was scheduled to be lodged against 15-year-old Jeddie Howell today at Wilkes-Barre for the alleged slaying of Willard Frey, 44, of Wilkes-Barre. Luzerne County District Attorney Leon Schwartz said the youth, who resides near Wilkes-Barre, would be haled before a grand jury convening August 27 and if a true bill was returned the case will be listed for trial during the week of September 17. Schwartz claimed the youth admitted the slaying. Frey, a former leather goods salesman, was found dead near a spring on the outskirts of Wilkes-Barre last Thursday. An autopsy revealed Frey had been shot with a .22 caliber rifle.

You Can Get A Drink On Friday Morning

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The State Liquor Board announced Wednesday that state stores and taprooms have been authorized to reopen Friday morning at the usual hour. Chairman Fred T. Gelder said the decision to extend the closing until Friday had been made after surveying conditions in Pennsylvania. He commended tavern owners for promptly complying with the board's closing order Tuesday night

$28,941 Worth Of Liquor Missing, Says State Board

Shortage Is Discovered In Philadelphia Warehouse; State Sets Up Claim

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Auditor General G. Harold Wagner had the liquor control board's assurance today that routine business procedure forestalled the loss of $28,941.20 as the result of shortages in state-owned liquor stores in a private Philadelphia warehouse. "The shortage has been set up as a claim against the Terminal Warehouse company and we are expecting a check in settlement of the same," stated Chairman Frederick T. Gelder in a letter to Wagner. He told the auditor general that the shortage had been uncovered during a regular inventory of stock at the warehouse in June and that the board had issued a claim for the value of the liquor within a month after the check had been completed. Gelder pointed out that the warehouse company has been bonded for $100,000 to cover such cases.

Really Celebrate In San Francisco

Drive Automobiles Through Liquor Store Windows, Loot, Riot Or What Have You

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Military and civilian police were called out in force late last night to bring a halt to San Francisco's wild victory celebration which reached riot proportions in downtown sectors.

Disorders accompanied by destructive looting prompted Police Chief Dullea to summon all civilian police, all the navy shore patrol and all army military police at 9 p.m. Police loudspeakers cars cruised about the downtown district ordering all persons off the street because of the "state of emergency and as citizens."

In some cases, automobiles were pushed through store windows, mostly liquor establishments, to force an entry. During the disturbances, there had been four riot calls, 37 false fire alarms, 94 ambulance calls and 64 automobile accidents. Thirty-one persons were treated for injuries.

Lt. Pyle's Ship In Late War Accident

Grandson Of D. S. Pyle Member Of Destroyer's Crew Which Stopped Hospital Ship

Lt. David S. Pyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Pyle of Gary, Ind., and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pyle of Lincoln avenue, figured in one of the closing incidents of the war reported by Admiral Nimitz.

Lt. Pyle's ship, the destroyer Cassin, stopped the Japanese hospital ship Kiki Maru en route from Marcus Island to Yokosuka, in Tokyo bay last Wednesday. The boarding party found no violation of international conventions and after proper inspection the Cassin directed her to her destination. The Kiki Maru was found to have 130 patients aboard. She was manned by 18 officers and 84 men.

Truman To Attend Legion Convention

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—President Truman on Wednesday accepted the invitation of National Commander Edward Scheiberling of the American Legion to attend the national Legion convention in Chicago Nov. 18 through 20. The invitation was extended during a call paid by Scheiberling at the White House Wednesday morning.

The president's acceptance was announced by Legion headquarters in Washington.

STRAY SHOT HITS RAILROAD WORKER

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Police today investigated the shooting of Joseph Ehnat, 64, Clairton, who was wounded in the left shoulder yesterday while working along the tracks of the Pittsburgh & West Virginia railroad near Clairton. Police believed the shot was fired by a small group of boys seen shooting a small calibre rifle or pistol in the vicinity. They said they thought it was not intended to hit Ehnat, whose condition was reported as not serious.

EXPLODES BULLETS GOES TO HOSPITAL

BECKLEY, W. Va., Aug. 16.—George Martin's peculiar way of celebrating victory over Japan put him in the hospital. The 19-year-old resident of Stickney was using an ax to set off small calibre bullets. A badly aimed stroke sent a bullet through his neck.

Navy Announces Release System

Navy Plans To Demobilize One And Half To Two And Half Million Men And Women Under Points

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The Navy announced Wednesday a plan to demobilize from one and a half to two and a half million naval personnel in the next year to 18 months, with 327,000 immediately eligible for release under the program.

The navy point system gives credit for age, length of service and dependency as follows:

One-half point for each year of age, figured to the nearest birthday.

One-half point for each full month of active duty since Sept. 1, 1939.

Ten points for a dependent (no additional credit allowed if there is more than one dependent).

On the basis of this method of computing scores, the number of points providing eligibility for release are set at 44 for enlisted men, 29 for enlisted wives, 49 for male officers, and 35 for wife officers.

Downward Adjustments

The navy said allowance for more than one dependent was not included because this added factor would not materially alter the order of release. While only 45 percent of naval personnel have dependents, approximately 65 percent of the 327,000 eligible have dependents, the navy said.

"The navy will make downward adjustments in the critical scores whenever military commitments permit," the announcement stated.

"By this means the navy plan is kept flexible and allowance is made for accelerating the rate of personnel release."

Will Lower Scores

"The department expects to lower the critical scores in order to meet its goal of releasing up to two million 500 thousand men within a year to 18 months. The speed and the extent to which this will be possible will, of course, depend upon military commitments."

The navy plan, like the army, provides that regardless of critical score, personnel who have received high combat decorations, including the medal of honor, navy cross, legion of merit, silver star and distinguished flying cross are eligible for release upon their own request.

The navy explained that lower critical scores had been assigned to waves because they would not ordinarily receive dependency credit and in addition the women's reserve had not been in existence long enough for women personnel to receive high duty scores.

The navy plan eliminated credit for overseas service. It was stated, because this would be a complicating factor that would not substantially affect the order of discharge.

How It Works

According to navy record 93 percent of male personnel have served outside the United States.

As an example of how the formula works, an enlisted man of 29 who has been in service since January, 1942, and is married, would receive 14 and one-half points for his age, 21 and one-half for length of service, and 10 points for dependency, making a total of 46 or two more than necessary to make him eligible for release.

The navy plan is being followed by the coast guard, the navy said. The formula applies to all naval reserve personnel, inductees and regular navy men serving beyond the expiration of their enlistment.

Army Terminates Prime Contracts

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The Army Signal Corps procurement agency Wednesday announced that terminations totaling $804,900-000 have been ordered on 5,000 prime contracts throughout the country.

The total number of contracts cancelled, including partial terminations, was 21,446. Still outstanding are approximately 525 contracts, the Army said.

Red Cross Gals Write Diary Of GI's In Berlin

Beach Clubs, Canteen Keep Soldiers Amused; Girls Find Shopping Difficult

DAZED GI HELPS TRUMAN CARRY BOX

By PAULICA TEAGUE AND RETA KILMER
Written Especially for U.S. Special Service

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—The most noticeable addition to Berlin is the arrival of the U. S. Navy.

The other night the first Blue Jackets, Y-C James Murphy of Rochester, Va., and Y-11 Gordon Thorne of Blue Creek, sauntered into our Red Cross and with coffee and dumplings in hand were spotted by the GI band playing.

What Was Navy Doing?

The band immediately broke into a very hot arrangement of Anchors Aweigh, and at that the whole room gave out with whoops and hollers welcoming the navy. The boys that night actually received attention that anything or anybody. For all the army had to know was what the heck the navy was doing in Berlin.

We never get the details of what they were doing.

To make the navy completely at home we took several out to the 2nd Armored Division beach club at Vanssee Lake, a beautiful club with a large expanse of sandy beach and boats galore.

The beach club has been named Club Riviera. Many a GI is enjoying a good tan there. No swimming is allowed, though, because the lake has been declared polluted, along with all Berlin's canals where the Nazis are reputed to have dumped dead bodies.

Two MPs we gave a lift to yesterday we dropped at the gates of the VIP (Very Important People) section where they have been official guards. We were highly amused.

ed at their comments on the activities of the Big Three.

Churchill Jovial, Stalin Stern

Churchill told us, was as excited as he looked and always stopped to talk to the boys he saw around the grounds. Stalin still remains the question mark. He never tried to smile.

President Truman, on the other hand, was completely informal. Our MP friends told us how one of their buddies was relaxing off duty in the most beautiful quarters near the PX when Mr. Truman came up with a cardboard box full of rations. Would the soldier mind helping him carry the rations up to his room, the president wanted to know. The shocked soldier jumped to his feet, laid hold of the box and followed the president past the strictest guard and most enervated porters right up to Mr. Truman's room. Much commotion was caused by the appearance of Bob Hope and Jerry Colonna with a USO troupe giving a show in the theater adjoining our club. While the theater is the largest stadium in Berlin, it could not accommodate all the boys who came to see them.

Shopping In The Ruins

Having an afternoon off this week we decided to go on a shopping spree. Our first problem was where to find shops among the ruins. Our first stop was a hat shop.

Not that we needed a hat but there were some very attractive models in the window.

At first the proprietress thought we had come to take the building or her supplies. Upon discovering we were only interested in hats she insisted we try on all of her creations.

The oddest shopping arrangement we have seen is carried on in the Awa Department Store, once one of the largest in Berlin. With the general scarcity in Berlin it is impossible to buy anything outright here.

A system of barter is in practice whereby something is always traded with the store. The management charging a ten per cent on the trade. Women were trading pink satin evening shoes for kitchen knives.

One German frau became quite excited for she was turning in six cut glass champagne glasses and the clerk would only allow her eight plain water glasses. Indignant over such a low rate of exchange the poor woman hurriedly wrapped up the champagne glasses and in so doing broke two.

Having nothing to trade, we left the crowd nudging each other and trying to guess what nationality we were.

Japanese Snooper Plane Is Chased

ABOARD ADM. MCCAIN'S FLAGSHIP, Aug. 16.—(INS)—A lone Jap reconnaissance plane was chased away today from Vice Adm. John S. McCain's task force 38.

There was no doubt that the Jap plane was on a "snooping" mission. Combat air patrols under orders to shoot down any enemy plane approaching warships of the Third Fleet, converged on the Jap plane, which fled when sighted.

Eisenhower Ends Visit To Moscow

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The Moscow radio reported today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower had returned to Berlin by plane after his visit in Moscow as a guest of the Soviet army. The broadcast said the American general was accompanied by Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov.

Before he left the Soviet capital Eisenhower was quoted as saying, "We had a splendid time. I am proud to call you friends."

'Didn't Make It' Say Prisoners

Japanese In Prison Camps On Guam Changing Mind About "Disgrace Of Surrender"

By CLARK LEE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, Aug. 16.—Even Japanese war prisoners—who by surrendering committed the most disgraceful act possible to the Nipponese—do not think their country was disgraced by yielding unconditionally to the Allies.

That was the impression this correspondent got today in talking to Japs who have been captives for periods ranging from a month to a year.

Didn't Make It

These Japs admit they suffered a tremendous psychological blow but they are inclined to view the defeat, as the Germans did, with a shrug.

"We didn't quite make it," they say. "We weren't strong enough." I have seen many people more remorseful on "the morning after" than these Japs are after starting and losing one of history's cruelest wars.

They don't feel they have done anything wrong.

Of course, these are the reactions of prisoners and may not be typical of Japs who have felt the weight of American air power over their home islands or of leaders who deliberately set out to conquer the world at any cost.

When the Jap prisoners heard Hirohito announcing the defeat, all 300 on Guam went bitterly at this realization.

"The Jap empire, which never had lost a war in 2,605 years, finally had been defeated."

Forty-eight hours later the Jap prisoners calmed down and for the first time since their capture began to think of themselves and their future.

Want to Return

Hitherto they had believed that it was impossible to go home where prisoners would be treated as dead men. But now about 50 per cent said they would like to return on Jap ships which before long will ply the outlying islands and lands where Japan's tide of empire reached its farthest point and take the soldier.

The other 50 per cent would prefer to remain on some Pacific island.

One educated Jap, a 35-year-old former government clerk and later a civil government official on Guam, discussed the situation freely.

"United States prisoners taken by the Japanese will be returned to America in accordance with American demands," he said. "We do not know what may become of us."

"You can kill us if you wish, but after the good treatment we have experienced we do not expect that."

Don't Understand It

"Most prisoners," the Jap continued, "don't know why the emperor is surrendering. All they know is the emperor told the Japanese to fight and now is telling them to quit. I believe we were beaten by the atomic bomb and the Russian entry."

At the beginning we were told it was a war of survival—either we won or we were destroyed. The government told us there was no such thing as surrender, but obviously the government knew there was such a thing and now has resorted to it."

Jacob Realizes the Presence of God

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Jacob's dream.

"Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest."—Genesis 28:15.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Aug. 19 is Genesis 27:23, The Memory Verse being Gen. 28:15. "Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest."

Isaac is an old man, when today's lesson begins. His eyesight is poor, so that he cannot tell one person from another. He lived many years after the episode related here took place, but he thought his life was nearly ended. His sons were twins, you remember. Esau being born first and Jacob the second. Jacob was a very handsome and clever boy, as we shall see.

Isaac called Esau to him, and told him to go forth, kill venison, prepare it as Isaac liked it, prepared and bring some to him.

Then he would give Esau the older son's blessing.

Now Rebekah, Esau's mother, had gone, she hated Jacob to her and told him to kill a goat and bring it to her that she might cook it as Isaac liked. Then he was to go to his father with the food and get the blessing in Esau's place. To Jacob's credit he said that he did not love his mother's scheme at first, but when she explained that she would disguise him as his father would think he was Esau, the temptation proved too great and he did as she said.

Isaac Is Deceived

With the savory food in his hands, with the rough hairy skin of the kid covering his arms and the back of his neck, Jacob went to his father. Isaac recognized Jacob's voice, but when Jacob insisted he was Esau, and when he felt his arms, he thought it surely was Esau. He however, asked how Esau had prepared the meat, so quickly and Jacob, once launched upon a lie, said blasphemously, "I secured it by because the Lord thy God brought it to me." Jacob was convinced, bestowed his blessing and kissed him.

When Esau returned and realized what deception had been used to steal his blessing, he was grief-stricken, saying, "Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even now also O my father, and he wept. Esau was given a blessing, but he was told that he, the older brother, should serve Jacob and should live by the sword.

Naturally, being cheated twice by Jacob, Esau hated his brother and swore that when their father died he would kill him. Rebekah learning this, thought it best to send Jacob away for a short time to visit her people, among his cousins. Esau did not want him to marry a Canaanite woman but that he should choose a wife from among her relatives at Haran, Isaac agreed to this.

Jacob started alone on his journey, and one night, being very weary, he put a stone under his head for a pillow and laid down to sleep. In his sleep he dreamed that he saw a ladder leading from earth to heaven upon which angels were ascending and descending. "And behold the Lord stood upon it," proclaiming himself as the God of Abraham and Isaac, and saying that the land where Jacob lay should be his and his seed's after him.

God With Him

"And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land," said the Lord. When Jacob awoke he said, "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not." He was frightened, and said, "How dreadful is this place! this is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

He rose early in the morning, and the place he had used for a pillow, set it up for a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it. He called the name of the place Bethel, and vowed that if God would be with him and will keep me in the way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then shall the Lord be my God. He promised that all that should be given him one-tenth would be given to the Lord. Thus Jacob realized that the presence of God of his fathers, and he went on his way, probably comforted.

Jacob never returned to his home while his mother lived, and she never saw him again. So Rebekah lost the son she loved so much and schemed to prosper.

Dismissed by Kate Foster, Scranton.

State Fortunate In Reconversion

WMC Director Boland Says Many Pennsylvania Industries Ready For Peace

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—State Manpower Director Florin J. Boland cautiously confined an appraisal of Pennsylvania's employment picture to one month after V-J Day.

Surveys by area directors of the War Manpower Commission, he reported, indicated that the state "as a whole" would not experience too serious an unemployment problem during the 30-day period.

Estimates by WMC officers in the state reflect the fortunate position of Pennsylvania in the reconversion picture due to the fact that our basic industries have continued to produce for war as they did for peace with expansion rather than major change," he stated.

Little Adjustment

"Large scale cancellation of war contracts will find primary industries in Pennsylvania prepared for civilian production with little or no adjustment required in the form of new machinery or other facilities," he added.

Iron, steel, coal mining, textiles and transportation were examples he added, of the basic industries in the state that "will not be substantially affected by the transition following V-J Day."

Boland emphasized that unemployment was expected to be widespread in some areas for short periods while industries retooled.

Approximately 90 per cent of the workers in the areas around Erie, Reading and Lancaster "will retain present employment or will have little difficulty in finding jobs in civilian production," he stated.

Workers in central Pennsylvania counties should experience little difficulty in finding peace-time employment, he added.

Temporary women employees, older workers who abandoned retirement and boys and girls of high school age were slated to desert the labor market, Boland reported.

JAH BREAKER LOOSE

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16.—(INS)—Edward Nixon, 23, who escaped a train at Harrisburg while being returned from Montana to the Northampton county prison at Easton, still was at large today more than nine hours after he eluded his guards.

State and city police immediately issued orders for the youth who faces a jail breaking charge in Northampton county and a burglary conviction in Delaware county. State police said they were not notified of Nixon's escape until his guards arrived at Philadelphia three hours after the youth's guards arrived at Philadelphia.

Nation Is Geared To Peace Program

Government Strives To Hold Prices Down While War Restrictions Relax

By EARLE MARCKREIS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The world's greatest war-producing nation buckled today to the tremendous task of making its reconversion program work.

The good news of more gasoline, canned foods, shoes, clothing and durable goods for civilians was offset by the sobering fact that Army and Navy contract cancellations will reach thirty-five billion dollars within the next few weeks and five million workers may be unemployed by mid-November.

Calls For Trail-Blazers

Reconversion Chief John W. Snyder, who discussed the reconversion plan with other government heads in a radio broadcast, called for the "trail-blazing spirit of our forefathers" in solving the most problems of shifting from war to peacetime production.

These were the latest developments—good and bad—in the government's reconversion timetable.

1. WPA will continue controls over scarce materials, looser restrictions on construction and durable goods programs, prevent hoarding of key raw materials, break bottlenecks hampering civilian production, and retain all but 30 or 40 of its 400 controls over industry.

2. OPA will keep the lid on food prices, seek to avert clothing price increases, prevent price control violations, and other rationing violations.

Little Steel Policy Relaxed

3. Economic Stabilizer William H. Davis gave the green light to the new wage policy which relaxes the "Little Steel" formula. General wage boards are prohibited, but pay increases which correct gross inequalities or of a reconversion may be granted if they affect prices, they are subject to Davis' approval.

4. Voluntary travel restrictions affecting major league baseball teams, football squads and other athletic groups may soon be relaxed.

5. Secretary of the Treasury Vincent announced a victory loan drive with a goal of raising $100 million in the next 30 days.

6. The Navy will demobilize from one and a half to two and a half million men and women in the next 18 months. Army discharges will total five million in the next year.

9. New military cutbacks in wooden and cotton goods requirements should ease the civilian apparel situation substantially by January 1.

10. New predictions that shoe rationing will end before next year. Controls over meat, fats and sugar will probably be retained after January 1.

CONFESSES GUILT

LYKEN, Pa., Aug. 16.—(INS)—Mark Charlesworth, 30, of Treacy City, was under $1000 bond today after he told state police at the Lykens sub-station that he was the driver of the car that had killed injured Harry F. Kuley of Lykens during Tuesday night's vicious explosion.

He was charged with involuntary manslaughter and failure to stop and help for the Lykens county grand jury.

The shoe plant, used today for treatment of X-ray burns, was once used for the medicinal properties by American Indians.

Two Steel Mills Halt Production In Pittsburgh Area

Cancellation Of Wartime Contracts Causes Many To Be Laid Off Temporarily

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16.—(INS)—The large Pittsburgh steel manufacturing today announced production has been halted entirely at two of their plants because of cancellation of wartime contracts.

The Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation said work had been stopped at its McKeesport Works, which had a payroll of 2100 employees.

The National Tube Company announced closing of its Ambler plant, where approximately 600 men would be laid off.

Caterpillar also affected 400 men and women at the Cherry Tree Works of U. S. Steel Corporation. National Tube Works, at McKeesport. All war production has been stopped at this plant, the company said.

Seven hundred civilian personnel have been taken into the army since Pearl Harbor.

OWI Advertises Victory
Bells For Sale, Today,
With War Over Two Days

By MARTHA KEARNEY
U. S. Staff Correspondent

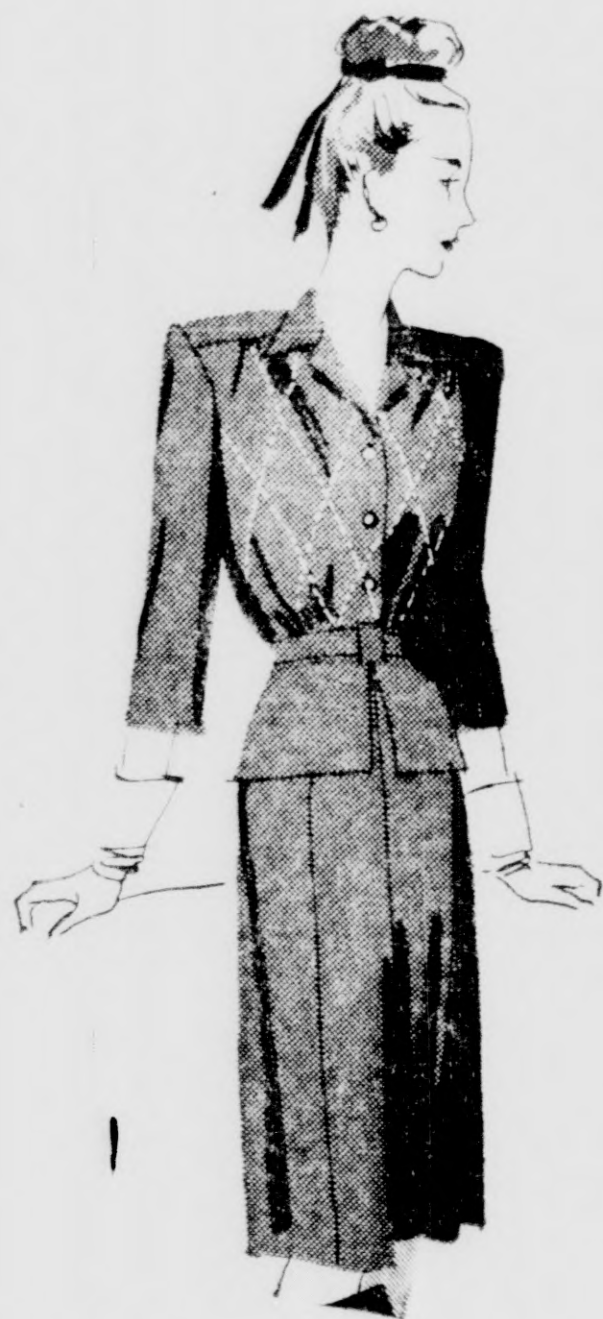

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Just as President Truman announced that the nation had two full days in which to blow its top, OWI issued a communique removing controls on arsenic consumption.

Arsenic may or may not be OWI's remedy for the leaden feeling that follows two days of celebration on practically an atomic scale.

It is clear, however, that OWI is moving toward the close of its official life in a blaze of irrelevance. When newspapers were jam-packed with news of the Japanese surrender, the efficiency of the atomic bomb and an explanation of radar, OWI released a flash on the revision of the ceiling price of popcorn.

At the same time, when the nation's lid of wartime repression flew off with a mighty roar, OWI issued a stern warning to manufacturers that restrictions on the use of Dollar stores had not been relaxed.

The official national press agent even guessed wrong on the end of the war. OWI advertised the sale of 1,000 small ship's bells "ideal for

Rescue Airmen From Open Sea

Navy Fliers Probably In Last Rescue Work Save
Lives Of Downed Pals

By PAT ROBINSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

OKINAWA, Aug. 16—Navy Marines probably made their last four open sea rescues of this war three days ago.

Lt. Everett McGuire of Dallas, Tex., landed under fire from a shore battery off Kyushu to pick up a wounded Thunderbolt pilot, who grabbed a rope to be dragged to safety aboard Everett's plane.

Everett's plane a little later landed and picked up another Thunderbolt pilot, Capt. Bill Morris of Goddell, Mich., who was injured.

A day later, Navy Lt. B. H. Scraper of Petersburg, Ind., hazarded a landing in eight-foot swells in the open sea to rescue Army Lt. Eugene Bush of Chicago, who was unhurt but had drifted in a raft for 23 hours off the northern Ryukyus.

An hour later Navy Lt. Ken Marling of Bensenville, Ind., picked up

Army Lt. Tom Taylor of (211 Dune-din Rr.) Columbus, O.
Taylor was shot down by the Japs, but escaped injury. He spent the night in his raft and in the morning found himself 200 yards offshore, where the Japs fired at him with rifles. He swam an hour, towing the raft, then climbed aboard then paddled two more hours before being rescued.

Marling had just made a triple rescue a few days previously without reporting the incidents, making three landings under fire and picking up wounded airmen.

In Other Words Don't Bite The Hand That Feeds

CHICAGO, Aug. 16—(INS)—Julius Goss, 39, put up such a plausible argument that police figured today they would have to eliminate him as an arson suspect in fires set at St. Peter's church and two other Catholic churches.

Goss, who has served several sentences for robbing church poor boxes, told police he had depended for his living on robbing the boxes. "I was a boy of 11 and asked: 'Why should I set fire to a church when that's where I get my living?'"

Allegheny Has State's Highest Rabies Record

Lawrence County Is Nineteenth On List Of Counties Having
Rabies Cases This Year

HARRISBURG, Aug. 16—Of the 431 positive cases of rabies reported to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture during the first 6 months of this year, the largest number for any one county was 157 for Allegheny. In efforts to control spread of the disease Secretary Miles Horst placed a 100-day quarantine on all of Allegheny County, including the City of Pittsburgh, effective May 7, and recently renewed it for another 100 days beginning August 14.

Luzerne County had the second highest number of rabies cases reported, a total of 46, according to records compiled by the Bureau of Animal Industry, Lackawanna and Washington Counties were next with 39 each. Other counties and the number reported from each between January 1 and June 30, included:

Philadelphia 32, including one muskrat; Fayette, 20; Beaver, 17; Susquehanna, 14; Montgomery, 13; Westmoreland, 8; Mercer, 7; Warren, 6; Bucks, 5; Crawford, 5; Erie, 3; Wyoming, 3; Jefferson, 3; Bradford, 3; Lawrence, 3 and one each in Armstrong, Delaware, Forest and Greene.

The 431 rabies cases reported included 383 dogs, 15 cats, 27 cattle, 4 horses, 1 rat and 1 muskrat.

SPOTLIGHT Of Today

"Bataan" the word chosen by Gen. Douglas MacArthur as the code designation for Japanese surrender negotiations, today becomes a symbol of victory and a mark of achievement.

Gen. MacArthur never for an instant forgot Bataan and its heroic defense in the face of overwhelming odds. Now he refuses to let the Japs forget it, making them use it as a code word and as a label for the plane which is to carry Emperor Hirohito's emissaries to Manila.

To the Japanese warriors who crossed and conditioned the notorious death march on the Philippines peninsula in 1942, the name must strike terror. To MacArthur it is a symbol of faith.

When the colorful American commander established his general headquarters at Melbourne in Australia—the first step in the long road back—"Bataan" became the name of the headquarters telephone exchange. Orders which eventually brought about the reconquest of the Philippines rumbled over the wires. Each phrase, call reminded MacArthur's staff officers and men of his creed.

"Bataan" traveled to each of the general's headquarters—from Brisbane to New Guinea and into the Philippines. Next stop Tokyo.

Communiques From MacArthur Outline Pacific War Story

First Communique In April, 1942,
Was Only Defeat Listed By American Leader

By FRANK ROBERTSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, Aug. 16—The road back and final victory over the Japs has been outlined in the 1228 communiques issued by General MacArthur.

It was a far cry indeed today from MacArthur's communique No. 1, issued to a small group of correspondents at Melbourne, Australia, on April 21, 1942.

The last communique, released Tuesday in battle-scarred Manila, stated simply:

Japanese capitulation having been announced, no further formal communiques will be issued from these headquarters.

That first communique issued 40 months ago announced American-Australian air attacks against Rorupony, Rabaul and Salamaua, and stated that Paul Marauder had been

That first communique also wrote a chapter in the famous story of Corregidor's heroic resistance. The enemy continues intermittent shelling and bombing of Corregidor.

A few weeks later, on May 6, the youngest of all of MacArthur's communiques announced the surrender of the Japs.

History will show that MacArthur's first communique was the first and only order listed by the avenger of Bataan.

RESEARCH CENTER

LONDON—(INS)—Britain is to build a great center for research and development of civil and military aviation to bring the nation in line with aeronautical research in the United States. It will be financed by the government and will cost several millions of dollars.

Lumber consumption, both military and civilian, in the United States, amounted to 38,000,000,000 board feet in 1943.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT

Without Stomach Relievers

To Get Happy Relief from Gassy, Bloating,
Tight-around-the-Waist Misery, You May Need This Kind of Laxative Help

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 28 feet or more of intestines that the greater part of digestion is done. Among the vital digestive organs that work in the intestines, the liver bile is one of the most important—especially vital to the digestion of fats. If bile slows down, food decays in the bowels. You may get constipated and feel full of gas, bloated, indigestion, etc. That's where you need Beecham's Pills. They help get the bile flowing freely, which helps you digest and eliminate in Nature's happy way. Ask your druggist for gentle, all-gentle Beecham's Pills today. Caution: Use only as directed.

Radar Eliminates Shipping Hazards

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(INS)—Leaders in the radio and electrical industries predicted Wednesday that application of the principals in radar would serve to eliminate major hazards of ship and plane navigation during peacetime.

General Electric revealed that it is already prepared to supply ships with radar to help them navigate regardless of limited visibility due to fog or other causes.
